3. Study Session –

PART ONE: COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT AD HOC COMMITTEE (6:00PM)

Topic: Community Engagement – “Community & Healing” - Listening session will continue the exploration of the core principle of the Commission’s recommendations to the City Council. Per the initial recommendation to City Council, the goal/charter of the Community Engagement Ad Hoc Committee is to help identify a variety of engagement opportunities for community discussions on matters relevant to public safety and wellbeing and to help the Commission plan and coordinate those opportunities. The history of CPR can be found in this recent essay summarizing some of the grassroots efforts of residents who have worked to enact police reform in Santa Monica:

<https://law.stanford.edu/stanford-center-for-racial-justice/grasrootsadvocacy/>

- a) Invited Special Guest: Members of Santa Monica Coalition for Police Reform (CPR).

PART TWO: REIMAGINING PUBLIC SAFETY COMMITTEE (7:00 PM)

Topics:

Exploring Approaches to Routine Traffic Enforcement – Listening session to explore pros and cons of decoupling local police from the function of routine traffic enforcement. What are the issues that underlie the widespread interest in this among police reform academics and advocates? Are there appropriate alternatives to sworn police officers conducting routine traffic enforcement? What are the budgetary implications of potential change? Invited guests include experts from within SMPD as well as external experts on the topic of local police departments and routine traffic enforcement.

School Safety - The role of SMPD and our city's school campuses. Internal experts from SMPD, the school district, and city hall will be invited to discuss recent events and the strategy for keeping students safe. External experts on the topic will also be invited.

Study Session - Committee discussion regarding plans for First Quarter of 2023.

4. Continued Items - None

5. Administrative Proceedings - None
